Attention: Accounting and Finance Professionals

Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Las Vegas

Position: Finance Director

(posted May 7, 2018)

IF you enjoy helping people-- and it's important to you that your hard work on the job every day makes a real impact in lives of families and children in great need;

AND you are currently looking for an accounting position that will leave you feeling inspired instead of burned out at the end of your workday;

THEN you may be the perfect fit for The House that Love Built. The Ronald McDonald House in Las Vegas is searching for the right combination of compassion, knowledge and experience to be our next Director of Finance.

Summary: RMHC of Greater Las Vegas is seeking a mature and experienced professional to join our senior executive team with responsibility for managing our non-profit organization's overall financial health. With a heart for helping and a mind for the bottom line, this talented individual will play a critical operational and strategic role in managing all of the organization's business and accounting control functions, and will help create and implement a financial strategy for the long-term growth of Ronald McDonald House Charities, which is committed to helping the families of children in medical crisis.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate has a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting, or equivalent work experience; five years plus in accounting experience preferred, and a CPA or MBA is desired; Non-profit management experience also preferred; Must be proficient in QuickBooks, Microsoft-related computer programs, including Word, Excel, Outlook, and PowerPoint. Compassionate, personable, and the ability to be a member of a dynamic and innovative team committed to helping families and children in need.

Compensation: Competitive salary, health insurance benefits, 401(k) plan, and PTO.

To Apply: Please submit a resume with cover letter and professional references to: Alyson McCarthy, CEO, RMHC LV at alyson@rmhlv.org. Or mail to: RMHC LV, 2323 Potosi St., Las Vegas, NV 89146.
